Blessing for the Sabbath

Introduction

Finding time for the things that really matter may be a challenge. Yet dedicating time to those we love sends the strongest message of how much we love them. God's invitation to spend the Sabbath together is not only the strongest evidence that He exists but also that He longs to be in relationship with us.

God is Real

Ezekiel 20:20 — The Sabbath is one of the strongest evidences that God is real, because only a real Being that wants to be in a relationship would ask for time to foster it.

God Shows His Love by Separating Time

Mark 2:27 — One of the strongest statements of love a person can give to another is when they express their desire to spend time together. God made the Sabbath for us, to let us know that we matter so much to Him that He wants to spend time with us.

Isaiah 58:13-14 — We respond to God's invitation and show our love toward Him by keeping and giving importance to the appointment God has made. When we respond to God's invitation without hesitance or reluctance we are expressing that God matters to us.

The Relationship of the Sabbath Results in a Blessing

Isaiah 58:14 — That blessed communion not only reminds us that God is the Creator (Exodus 20:8-11) but also the One who blesses and gives meaning to life.

Mark 2:28 — In Jesus we find God's greatest expression of His desire to be with us. In the Sabbath we find God's commitment of time to spend with those He loves. The greatest blessing comes from a Sabbath spent with Jesus.
